Words by SAMUEL M. MITCHELL.

Music by H. P. DANKS.

1. Far a - way in sun - ny mead - ows, Where the mer - ry sun-beams
2. Ere the summer days de - part - ed, We had made a sol - emn
3. 'Twas de - creed that fate should part us, Ere the leaves of Au - tumn played,

vow,
fell,
And
fell,
And
oft I lingered 'mid the clo - ver,
And I nev - er, nev - er wea - ried two lov - ing hearts were sev - er'd,

Sing - ing to a vil - lage maid; She was fair - er than the Kiss - ing her sweet cheek and brow; She was dear - er than the
That had loved each oth - er well; She was all I had to fair - est, Ev - er faith - ful, fond, and true.

dear - est, Pure as drops of morn - ing dew, cher - ish, She has bade a last a - dien,

And she wore beneath a bon - net, Am - ber tresses tied in blue.
And adown her neck were hang - ing Am - ber tresses tied in blue.
And I see in ev' - ry vis - ion, Am - ber tresses tied in blue.
Sva..... loco.
