

FUN FOR THE MILLION

Burgess and Redmond Beg Leave to State That
They Have Opened Their New CONCERT HALL
Adelaide St. Opposite The Court House

COME ONE COME ALL
To Burgess and Redmond's Concert
This Monday Evening April 19, 1858

PROGRAMME

PART ONE

Overture - Band
Opening Chorus - Troupe
Beautiful Star - Thompson
Villikens And His Dinah - Burgess
Gentle Annie - Thompson
Toronto Belles - Burgess
Slave's Lament - Thompson
Ding Ding Dong - Burgess
Poor Old Tom - Thompson
Final - few Days

• • • • •

PART TWO : VARIATIONS

Quartette - By The Brothers
Violin Solo - D. Riley
Banjo Solo - P. Redmond
Ballad - Thompson
Dignity and Ignorance - Burgess & Redmond
Ballad - Thompson
Lecture of Women's Rights - Burgess
Smoke House Jig - P. Redmond

• • • • •

The whole to conclude with the new and laughable farce, entitled

A GHOST! In Spite Of Himself

Bones - A man that's not easily frightened - Burgess
Sam Johnson, a burglar - C. Small
Jim Slabe, a retired merchant - Thompson
Jim Crow - Campbell